Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Monuments, Tablets and Other Memorials: Erected in Massachusetts to Commemorate the Service of Her Sons in the War of the Rebellion, 1861-1865 In the many years succeeding the war, the question has often arisen, Has such a city or town anything to commemorate the struggle which cost the nation so much in blood and treasure? No immediate answer has been possible thus far. The material for complete information has long been in existence, but, until the present collection was made, nothing was known of the many municipalities of the Commonwealth, save as direct inquiry was made. A man travelling through Massachusetts and seeing in so many cities and villages the towering shaft, dedicated to the memory of the patriotic dead, naturally thinks that almost every division of the old Bay State has some kind of a memento of the far-off war times; but closer observation and more extended searching reveal the fact that above one hundred Massachusetts towns have, as yet, nothing to indicate a memory of the sacrifices that nearly rived the nation almost fifty years ago. Still, the record is a proud one, since the excess over one memorial is so great in many of the larger towns and in the cities that there is an easy average of more than a single tribute for every one of the three hundred and fifty-four parts into which the Commonwealth is divided. The cost of monument or other memento varies greatly, ranging from the $150,000 memorial on Boston Common downward to the humble record placed upon the inner wall of a rustic town hall, at an expense of $50 or less. This compilation is made...
