Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Perkiomen Region, Past and Present, Vol. 2 It is with genuine pleasure that we enter upon the task of issuing the Second Volume of The Perkiomen Region. In resuming the publication it is proper to state that it will be conducted on the same general lines as heretofore. Its aim will continue to be to develop the local and family history of the Perkiomen Valley, and to bring to view the salient features of its resources, its scenery and it 3 institutions. As heretofore a principal purpose will be to render merited honor to the worthy men and women, of whatever nationality, who have during the past two centuries made their homes within its borders. A considerable portion of the matter to appear in the new volume will consist of the results of the researches of Mr. Dotterer in the libraries and archives of Europe, so far as they bear upon the history of the Perkiomen country. Articles from former and from new contributors, upon subjects of direct interest, have been promised and may be looked for. Original Official Document of 1776. Providence township, stretching away from either side of the Perkiomen at its entrance into the Schuylkill, was not exceeded in the intelligence and patriotism of its people in the Revolutionary time by any district in the Thirteen Colonies. Who were its inhabitants? What their condition and their occupation? The names of its property owners and the nature of their holdings furnishes the answer. Nothing can more clearly mirror to the imagination the character of its people and their concerns. Fortunately we have the assessors list of this township for the year 1776,...
