D777 1984 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)11248876 Subject: Drug abuse -- Treatment -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . Single State agencies and appropriate professional organizations should take the lead in licensing, credentialing, and accreditation of workers in the field. This would involve a systematic training program for clinicians and counselors. Accept the fact that repeated episodes of treatment are probably necessary for those with serious substance abuse problems. These do not indicate failure on anyones part, but merely reflect the nature of the problem and the culture. Provide flexible scheduling, so that addicts can coordinate treatment with work. Evaluate from the consumers point of view. Clients can frequently provide information regarding the dynamics of treament and gaps in service. Undertake collaborative efforts with law enforcement agencies involving the criminal justice system in treatment-rehabilitation efforts. Address the problem of improvement of the addicts overall general health. In evaluation, address clinic size (number of patients) as it relates to success failure in outcome measures; examine public vs. private programs. Reconsider the role of...

A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that i am certain that i will planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).
