The incense of its dissolution lingers in the approval of a life, whose labor as with that of others of her sei was at home, while its work was the worlds. Removed in the midst of duties unremitted, of pleasures unexhausted, with principles still daily illustrated, her character is the record of the past wish her, its memory her praise. r. Brady, Henry Austin, Esq. of N. York, 27 Sept. 1854. Mr. Brady was lost in the Arctic which was sunk in the Atlantic by coming in collision with another ship about 40 miles from Cape Race, as he was returning from a tour in Europe. His wife had died some time before he left upon this journey. He had been for several years a valued acquaintance of the Editor, and was an amiable, intelligent and highly...
