Excerpt: .worthy to hold membership in a Chapter by his Companions, he is eligible to the office of High Priest, and if elected, and expresses willingness to assume the vows, obligations and responsibilities imposed by our installation services, he should be installed. The object of this explanation is to emphasize the observance of that principle, and to enforce it by precept and example as much as possible, that our lives, conduct and conversation should ever be in line with our professions as Masons. So far, so good. But why is he not charged, and, if found guilty, expelled, as he ought to be? How can such a man be a Mason? 2. Ques. Which is the proper time for approving the minutes of a regular Convocation of the Chapter, the night on which it is held or at the following regular meeting? Ans. The minutes of a regular Convocation of the Chapter must be approved at the time when held, before the Chapter closes. In addition to the fact that in my judgment this, in principle and policy, is the better and safer rule of procedure, I gave as my reasons therefor: First, that the regulations of our Grand Chapter are silent on that subject; second, it is a law of Capitular Masonry, quite general, I believe, that where a Grand Chapter has failed to enact laws in given cases requiring action to facilitate its own successful government, or that of its subordinates, the laws...
