Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.9in. x 0.3in.The following work is the second book of a larger whole by Tertullian, which deals with the subject of modesty in female dress. The idea presented is one that is indisputably Christian in nature, but the application of that idea in the mind of the earliest believers in Christ may seem very foreign to the modern reader. However, one must consider the nearness of the apostolic teaching to those presented here and wonder, did this teaching migrate more in the first 150 years, or the next nearly 2000 years Upon reading the comments of others about it in the present day, some have found Tertullians explanation hard to understand, others have called it ascetic, or outright legalism. I, for one, profoundly disagree with these assessments. When the apostle Paul says, women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self - control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or costly attire, but with what is proper for women who profess godliness - - with good works (1 Tim 2: 9 - 10), what else is meant except that it is right for a woman to do exactly as stated Are we living now in a day when obeying a commandment is considered legalism Yet the logic of Tertullian is sharp and astute, simply providing the explanation of the doctrine, and its reasoning behind it. Rather than a case for legalism, Tertullian uses the issue as an apt means to show the motives and conditions of the heart. A tree is known by its fruit (Matt. 12: 33), said the Master. Should not a modest woman dress modestly Should a woman who is not vain not...
